DÜSSELDORF INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (DUS)

Airport code: DUS

Number of Terminals 1

Information

Information desks can be found in Departures and Arrivals, as well as at Düsseldorf Airport's railway station. The main information desk is located next to baggage claim belt 6 in Arrivals. There is also an information telephone helpline (tel: +49-211/42 10).

How to get there

Driving Directions

The A44 autobahn runs past Düsseldorf Airport. Follow the sign 'Flughafen' at junction 31 to reach the airport.

Rail

Regular trains link to various destinations from Düsseldorf Airport's railway station, Düsseldorf Flughafen. Deutsche Bahn (bahn.de) services include regional, express, intercity and high-speed InterCity Express (ICE) trains that connect the airport to a number of cities in Germany.

The automated Sky Train links the railway station and the terminal building in around six minutes.

Metro

The S-Bahn metro train runs directly into the airport complex (Düsseldorf Flughafen Terminal) and links to Düsseldorf Hauptbahnhof in the city centre. Tickets can be bought from the machines on the platform.

Bus

The bus station is located in front of Arrivals, from which a good selection of regional services operate.

Taxi

Taxis leave from in front of Arrivals. The certified Airport Taxis are available at the designated taxi ranks on the Arrivals and Departures level and identified by the Airport Taxi sticker. These taxis meet particular quality criteria. These include, among others, payment by credit card and on account.

Car Parking

There are several car parks available with direct access to the terminals. These are mostly short-term car parks, while the long-term car parks are further away from the terminals. P4 and P5 are connected to the terminal via the Sky Train (journey time: 2 minutes). Additional long-term/economy facilities are also a short distance from the terminals.

Transfer info

At the Lufthansa Terminal in Düsseldorf you can expect excellent connections to around 50 Lufthansa Group destinations in Germany and Europe as well as to New York (Newark) with a transit time of just 35 minutes.

After arriving in Düsseldorf there are monitors in the terminal from which you can obtain information about the departure gate number of your connecting flight. Follow the signs to the appropriate gate. You will remain in the same building and normally have only a short distance to walk.

Due to legal regulations, you will possibly have to pass through several security checks while going through the transfer process. Be prepared to pass border controls in case the airport you flew from and your destination are not both within the Schengen Area.

Please note: The airport's transit area is closed between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. If you have a connecting flight the following day, you will need a residence permit for the Federal Republic of Germany.

Accessibility

Düsseldorf International Airport is fully accessible for disabled passengers, with lifts and ramps where needed and wheelchair-accessible toilets. The Sky Train is also accessible for wheelchair users.

Wheelchairs are available on request and passengers with disabilities are required to inform their airline of their requirements in advance.

Drivers displaying disability identification can park in the 'terminal' and 'langzeit' car parks for free – these drivers are advised to use car parks P1, P2 and P3.

Visa & Immigration

IATA Travel Centre

The IATA Travel Centre delivers accurate passport, visa and health requirement information at a glance. It is a trusted, centralized source for the latest international travel requirements. The IATA Travel Centre is the most accurate source available because it is based on a comprehensive database used by virtually every airline, and information is gathered from official sources worldwide, such as immigration and police authorities.
