Transferring at Frankfurt Airport

In the new Pier A, which was constructed exclusively for Lufthansa, and in Terminal 1, Lufthansa and all its Star Alliance partners are located together under one roof. The two terminals are only a few minutes travel time away from each other by shuttle bus or by the SkyLine elevated railway.

For up-to-the-minute information on your connecting flight, please consult one of the monitor screens located around the airport. If no gate has been assigned yet, head for the indicated pier. Then follow the blue signs to the gate, keeping the walking times displayed in mind. Gray signs show the way to passenger services.

Transit passengers who must change between Piers A and B (in Terminal 1) may use the passenger tunnel. If you need to transfer between Pier A, B, C, or Z (in Terminal 1) and Pier D or E (in Terminal 2), follow the signs to the SkyLine train, which departs every two or three minutes, or take one of the shuttle buses that circulate between the terminals.

If you already have a boarding pass for your connecting flight, please consult one of the monitors to double-check the assigned gate.

If you do not have a boarding pass for your connecting flight, please go to a transfer desk of the airline operating your flight or proceed straight to the departure gate, where you can obtain your boarding pass at the desk. In the pre-security part of the airport, please go to your airline’s check-in counter.

If you are in a hurry to catch a connecting flight at Frankfurt Airport, you can take a shortcut to get to your gate faster. The fast lanes at the security checkpoint may be used on a priority basis by passengers whose flight is listed on the display.

For assistance, simply scan your boarding pass at one of the information kiosks, and all the relevant information on your connecting flight will be displayed, or ask at one of the information counters, where multilingual service staff will be happy to help you. Alternatively, ask the Mobile Service Guides, who are recognizable by their red uniforms.

In most cases, you must clear security checks on your way through the airport. Whether or not you must clear a passport check depends on whether the airport you have arrived from and your destination are within or outside the Schengen Area. Please allow enough time for both of these.

Detailed passenger information is available on the airport’s website (frankfurt-airport.com).

Lufthansa Transfer Services

The Lufthansa Transfer Service is offered in German and English as standard, as well as in other languages depending on the country of origin of the flights. Passengers who value personal assistance to help them at the airport can still book the Lufthansa Guide Service (for a fee).

Here, passengers will receive all the latest information about their connecting flights, the location of the lounges, the airport infrastructure, and their baggage.

Exclusive Transfer Service

At each Transfer Service Point, a Lufthansa representative will also take care of any requests from First Class and Business Class passengers as well as HON Circle Members, Senators and Star Alliance Gold passengers.
